Q1 2026 Fund Commentary

Commentary and opinions are provided by Keyridge Asset Management Limited.

Market commentary

The first quarter of 2026 was an eventful period for international equity markets. The escalation of conflict in the Middle East in late February disrupted markets that had been advancing until that point. With energy prices rising sharply – Brent oil moved from roughly US$72 to US$118 per barrel at quarter-end – energy sector stocks gained, but most other sectors in the international developed market delivered negative returns in March. Traditionally defensive sectors including utilities, communication services and health care declined, while the consumer staples sector also lagged. The drawdown in the final month of the quarter erased much of the gains from earlier in the period.

Performance

A holding in Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. contributed to the Fund's performance during the quarter. Holdings in Eni SPA and Deutsche Boerse AG also contributed to performance.

At a sector level, allocation in the consumer discretionary and energy sectors contributed to the Fund's performance.

A holding in ICON PLC detracted from the Fund's performance during the quarter. Holdings in Ryanair Holdings PLC and Tencent Holdings Ltd. also detracted from performance.

Stock selection in the materials and health care sectors detracted from the Fund's performance.

Portfolio activity

The sub-advisor added to the Fund holdings in Nippon Sanso Holdings Corp., Novartis AG, BNP Paribas SA and CaixaBank SA. The sub-advisor sold the Fund's holdings in The Magnum Ice Cream Co. NV and EssilorLuxottica SA.

Outlook

The sub-advisor searches global equity markets for attractively valued companies and isn't driven by macro events. The sub-advisor doesn't include macro forecasting in the search or selection process.
